The Vision: The first CD on the double disc album presents Sam & DTWG in a whole new light. They've taken it back to their African roots; you'll be sure to be dancing to the vibrant Afro Beats and singing along with the infectious African Gospel Praise. So whether you listen to this, as you're getting ready in the morning or in your car after a long day, this part of the album will definitely uplift, inspire and motivate you.

The Mission: Sam & DTWG return to a sound you know and love, with this second CD on the double disc album. This disc features well-known artists such as Keshia McFarland, Osmond Collins, Decca recording-artist Kristyna Myles, Andrew Bello, Adrian T and Muyiwa of Riversongz who appeared on Bonus Track Video. Make sure to listen out for the sweet vocals of some of the members of the New Direction Choir in Chicago, USA.

This double-disc album definitely shows how Sam & DTWG have come a long way from their freshman release, DTWG: The Project. All the songs are co-written and co-produced by Sam Adebanjo, who had the pleasure of working alongside incredible producers such as Dontaniel Kimbrough, Inner Productions, Altar Sounds, Beautiful Soundz and James Ritchie. This collection has a song for everyone; Do you want something that is soulful, encouraging, R'n'B, rock, pop or afrobeats? Well, The Vision/The Mission [double-disc album] has all of this and more!
